Jeweler and Optician,
Corner Twelfth and Market Streets.

GRAND OPERA SALOON. Oyster and Chop House. Give us a call for the Rye Whiskies. 59 Twelfth Street.
Badly Hurt by a Horse.
Early yesterday morning as Joseph Ranscher, the well-known driver for the Reynolds Brewery, was attending to his horses one of the animals kicked him on the right leg below the knee, badly shattering the bone. He was carried to his home on Eighteenth street and medical aid summoned. He will be confined to his room for some time.

Wagons Broke Down.
Yesterday forenoon a large two-story wagon loaded with coal broke an axle on Seventeenth street in front of the Fourth ward school, and coal was scattered over the surrounding country in profusion.
In the afternoon one of Floto's bread delivery wagons lost both front wheels on Sixteenth street near the postoffice corner, but the bread, of which the wagon contained an unusually full load, was saved. It was transferred to other wagons and the wreck hauled to the shop.

Prisoners Pardoned.
Yesterday Mike Hale, who was sent to the hill this week for thirty days in default of a fine for beating his wife, was released by order of the mayor on paying the costs only. Mrs. Hale begged the mayor and Captain McNichol to let her husband out, as he was her only support. Pat Gilboy, who had a fight with his father a few days ago and was sent up in default of the fine, was also pardoned, as his mother was said to be dying and wanted to see him.

Yesterday's Police Court.
In the police court yesterday poor Barney Brady was sent to the hill for thirty days in default of $1 and costs for his old offense of being drunk. William Melcher, the old German who went to Tappan & Connel's photograph gallery nearly midnight and tried to force the door open to get his picture taken, as he explained, was fined $1 and costs, which he paid. This was all the docket had on it.

In the Circuit Court.
In the circuit court yesterday Henry Jenkins, indicted for a felony in stealing a pocketbook from a resident of the South Side some time ago, was tried to a jury, and he was pronounced guilty and sent to the county jail for thirty days. Henry Pennacker, indicted for petty larceny, in stealing the automatic perfume machine from C. R.
Goetze's stand on the State Fair grounds, was also tried, found guilty and given thirty days in jail.

Transfer Recorded.
Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record two deeds of trust and transfers as follows:
December 23 by Thomas Morris and wife to Henry Nikolans for $2,000, the east quarter of lot 229, on the north side of Sixteenth street, in East Wheeling.
November 13 by Charles Schmidt, F.
Happy and H. Biebersen and their wives to William Ripley, for $375, lots 17 and 18 in the Belvedere addition to the city.

Commendable.
All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the California Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.
